Time for J.O.Y.

April 23-25, 2010
Camp Mitchell
Petit Jean Mountain

2010 Speaker: Beth Maze

Beth loves to knit, read, play the piano, re-arrange the furniture with her husband, play with her grandson, and look at the ocean. Topics for Time for JOY will have as their center "Consciousness and Mindfulness." We will talk about listening to the Wisdom within and creating rituals in the everyday stuff of our lives.

Beth Maze grew up in Mississippi in a large family that laughs a lot. She is a happily married mother of two daughters and is presently the Chaplain and Religion teacher - as well as the music teacher - for The Cathedral School in Little Rock.

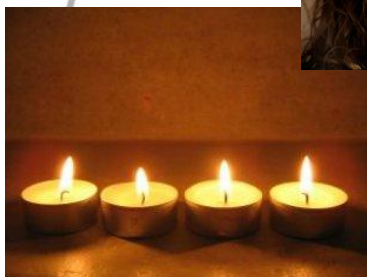

Up on the mountain, the veil is thin.

Spirit moves as freely as laughter and tears allow.

Prayers are heard. Friendships are made. I know I am loved.

Sponsor Find the young women in your midst who need to experience J.O.Y. in their lives, assure them all will be well, get them registered and support them on their journey.

Volunteer Time for JOY is organized, promoted and staffed by volunteers. Join our team and reap the rewards of giving in Spirit.

Give The gift of radical hospitality requires gifts both tangible and financial. Donations may be sent directly to ECW Treasurer MaryAnn Arnold, 7321 South Q Street, FortSmith, AR 72903, with "Time for JOY" in the memo. For a sample list of gifts, please visit our website.

Women 19 - 40 lead hectic lives; we know this. We also know these women are the future of our Church. Let us infuse your life now with tangible reminders of Spirit and help you see Christ in your daily life.

May you return to your home renewed in body, mind and spirit. May the friendships you make and the knowledge you gain be with you always.
